Competitive Social Ventures (“CSV”) expands the team with the addition of Sheila Scroggs as the Assistant General Manager of Fairway Social Trilith. She holds over 20 years of experience in the hospitality industry; she started as a bartender in college and that sparked her love for the restaurant and hospitality industry. Over the years, she honed her craft by working for some of the best restaurants in Atlanta.

“I’m excited to be a part of a company whose purpose and values align with mine. It’s inspiring seeing the path CSV is on and proud of what’s on the horizon,” stated Scroggs.

“Sheila has shown her perseverance to grow through her hard work and dedication within the industry,” stated James Lovvorn, General Manager of Fairway Social Trilith. “Her experience is unmatched, and she has been a huge part of prepping the venue and staff for opening. We are truly proud to have her as a part of the team.”

Competitive Social Ventures (“CSV”) continues to grow and has added Jenny Stowe to the team as the Sales Account Manager for Fairway Social Trilith. She is a Duke University graduate and holds over 11 years of sales & marketing experience, as well as seven years of legal experience. In her new role, Stowe will oversee the booking of events at Fairway Social Trilith, such as corporate parties, social parties, celebrations and more.

“Once I came upon CSV’s core values, I knew this was the place for me,” stated Stowe. “From the moment I stepped through the door, I was made to feel like family. I look forward to growing and working hard with this amazing team to provide best-in-class experiences for all guests.”

“Jenny holds a passion for creating and building client relationships while going great lengths to ensure they receive top-notch service. We cannot be more excited to have her join our team and we look forward to see where she takes Fairway Social Trilith,” stated Brian Harper, Partner, and SVP of Sales & Marketing.
